Illinois Finance Authority Sports Facility Revenue Bonds (North Shore Ice Arena Project) Series 2008

In connection with the public offering and sale of the above-captioned bonds (the "Bonds"), we submit this Survey (the "Survey") that indicates the jurisdictions in which the Bonds may be sold by the Underwriter and other brokers and dealers in compliance with the securities laws (also known as the "blue sky" laws) of such jurisdictions. We have prepared this Survey as counsel for the Underwriter, and it is furnished only for their general information.

We are not members of the bar of many of the jurisdictions covered by this Survey. Accordingly, the Survey is based upon an examination of the regularly accepted unofficial compilations of the securities laws and regulations, if any, of the various jurisdictions referred to in the Survey. We have not obtained either (i) opinions of local counsel or (ii) formal rulings by administrative authorities in any jurisdiction with respect to this proposed offering. The Survey is furnished only for your general information and is not to be relied on as an opinion of counsel.

We note that the authorities responsible for administering the securities laws of the various jurisdictions typically have broad discretionary powers with respect to the offer and sale of securities, including the power to withdraw exemptions granted by the applicable statutes and the power to impose additional requirements, including notice filing requirements, with respect to securities offerings and the information which must be furnished by issuers and underwriters proposing to undertake an offering. Further, the Survey does not purport to cover the requirements or restrictions, if any, with respect to advertising material. Additionally, in those jurisdictions where licensed dealers or brokers may sell the Bonds, it is assumed that those persons have complied with all applicable statutes and regulations concerning registration and licensing of brokers, dealers, agents and salesmen.

Any statement in the Survey with respect to offers or sales to banks, savings institutions, trust companies, insurance companies (such terms having meanings attributed to them in the respective securities laws which we have surveyed) or similar institutions refers only to requirements of the securities laws relating to offers or sales of securities to those institutions generally. No opinion is expressed with respect to the legality of the purchase of or the investment in the Bonds or any other specific security by such institutions.

Very truly yours,

MCGUIREWOODS LLP
