In the event such additional funds are required, any Member that has not paid for its Ice Time shall be required to make such payment in addition to any contribution required pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence.

8.2 Limited Liability. The Members shall not have any personal liability for liabilities or obligations of the Company, and the Members shall not be required to make any contribution to the Company, except to the extent that additional funds are necessary to pay reasonable and customary operating expenditures, or to lend or advance funds to the Company for any purpose.

ARTICLE IX
DISTRIBUTIONS, REPORTS AND ELECTIONS

9.1 Limitation upon Distributions.

(a) No distributions or return of contributions shall be made and paid

(1) to any Person who is not a Member, except as otherwise permitted in this Agreement;

(2) if, in the case of distributions only, such distributions would be made to a Member that has ceased to be a 501(c)(3) Entity; provided, however, that any such distribution shall be permitted if such distribution is exchanged for fair market value;

(3) if, after the distribution or return of distribution is made either, the Company would be insolvent;

(4) if, after the distribution or return of distribution is made either, the net assets of the Company would be less than zero; or

(5) to the extent that such distribution or return of contributions would otherwise be inconsistent with the Company's exempt purposes or the Company's status as a Section 501(c)(3) Entity.

(b) The Board may base a determination that a distribution or return of contribution may be made under Section 9.1(a) in good faith reliance upon a balance sheet and profit and loss statement of the Company represented to be correct by the person having charge of its books of account or certified by an independent public or certified public accountant or firm of accountants to fairly reflect the financial condition of the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding anything related to the foregoing and subject to Section 9.1(a)(2), no distribution shall be made to any Member unless such Member provides a written certification to the Company that such distribution shall be used in furtherance of such Member's charitable purposes.

9.2 Accounting Principles. The profits and losses of the Company shall be determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis using the accrual method of accounting.

9.3 Loans to Company. Subject to Section 7.3, nothing in this Agreement shall prevent any Member from making secured or unsecured loans to the Company by agreement with the Company.

9.4 Accounting Period. The Company's accounting period shall be the 12-month period ending June 30 ("Tax Year").

9.5 Records, Audits and Reports. At the expense of the Company, the Board shall maintain records and accounts of the operations and expenditures of the Company. At a minimum the Company shall keep at its principal place of business the following records:

(a) A current list of the full name and last known address of each Member setting forth the amount of cash each Member has contributed, a description and statement of the agreed value of the other property or services each Member has contributed or has agreed to contribute in the future, and the date on which each became a Member;

(b) A copy of the Articles of Organization of the Company and all amendments thereto, together with executed copies of any powers of attorney pursuant to which any amendment has been executed;

(c) Copies of the Company's federal, state, and local income tax returns and reports, if any, for the three (3) most recent years;

(e) Minutes of every meeting of the Board;

(f) Any written consent obtained from Managers and Members for actions taken by Managers and Members without a meeting; and,

(g) Unless contained in the Articles of Organization or this Agreement, a writing prepared by the Board setting out the following:

(2) Any right of a Member to receive distributions that include a return of all or any part of the Member's contributions; and,

(3) Any power of a Member to grant the right to become an assignee of any part of the Member's Membership Interest, and the terms and conditions of the power.

9.6 Returns and Other Elections. The Board shall cause the preparation and timely filing of all tax returns required to be filed by the Company pursuant to the Code and all other tax returns deemed necessary and required in each jurisdiction in which the Company does business. Copies of such returns, or pertinent information therefrom, shall be furnished to the Members within a reasonable time after the end the Company's Tax Year upon the Members' written request. All elections permitted to be made by the Company under federal or state laws shall be made by the Board in its sole discretion.

9.7 Taxation as a Corporation. It is the intention of the Members that the Company be subject to taxation as a corporation for federal income and for state tax purposes.

ARTICLE X
RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER

10.1 General. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, no Member shall have the right, as to all or any part of his or her Membership Interest, to:

(a) assign, pledge, hypothecate, transfer, exchange or otherwise transfer for consideration equal to its original (including by operation of law); or

(b) gift, bequeath or otherwise transfer for no consideration (whether or not by operation of law) (collectively, "Transfer").

For the avoidance of doubt, no Member shall transfer any part of any Membership Interest to a Person not satisfying the requirements of Section 4.3 hereof, and any such purported transfer shall be void ab initio. The Board shall be permitted to assign such Membership Interest to any other Member satisfying the requirements of Section 4.3.

10.2 First Option to Remaining Member. If a Transferring Member desires to Transfer all or any portion of its Membership Interest to a third party purchaser (a "Third Party Transferee") the Transferring Member must first offer the Membership Interest to the Remaining Member on the same terms and conditions as those being offered by the Third Party Transferee. If after thirty (30) days the Remaining Member declines to purchase the Transferring Member's Membership Interest, the Transferring Member may proceed with the Transfer subject to Article VII (a "Permitted Transfer").

10.3 Invalidity of Transfer of Encumbrance. Any attempted transfer or encumbrance of a Membership Interest not in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be void and of no force or effect. Each Member, either existing now or in the future, hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless, in all respects, for any damages or expenses, including legal fees, incurred by the Company with respect to such invalid transfer or encumbrance.

ARTICLE XI
ICE ALLOCATION, SALE AND COST

11.1 Annual Member Commitments.

(a) Each Member hereby commits to purchase a minimum amount of ice time per year on the main sheet of ice at the Ice Arena and on the studio ice of the Ice Arena as described in the ten (10) year agreements attached as Exhibit A ("Ice Time"). On the first day of April of each year, each Member shall specify the amount of Ice Time it will purchase for the upcoming Fall- Winter-Spring hockey season and to the extent there is a reduction from the prior year then the ten (10) year agreement(s), as applicable, shall be adjusted subject to approval/consent by appropriate parties. In no event shall, in any year, the purchase for the upcoming Fall-Winter-Spring hockey season be ten percent (10%) less than the minimum amount of Ice Time specified for the prior year. If a Member elects to reduce its minimum amount of Ice Time by up to ten percent (10%) in any year, then the reduced amount shall be Ice Time for the following year. Under no circumstances shall any Member be permitted to reduce its minimum Ice Time by more than thirty percent (30%) in any five (5) year period. The first five (5) year period shall be deemed to commence on August 23, 2010. Ice time for a season as specified above shall be paid for in no more than nine (9) monthly installments commencing September 1 of each season and with a final payment on April 1 of each season. Such monthly payments may be weighted to take into account required Company debt service obligations and other operating expenses.

(b) Members have entered into ten (10) year ice purchase agreements for Ice Time at the Ice Arena through August 20, 2022. For any year, no Member's Ice Time will be reduced from the prior year unless (x) both Members agree to the reduction, (y) a Member fails to pay for Ice Time for the prior season or (z) such Member elected to reduce its Ice Time pursuant to Section 11.1(a) above. In the event (y) above occurs and is not cured within thirty (30) days after a payment is otherwise due, the other Member ("Other Member") shall have the right to sell on behalf of the Company up to 25% of the Ice Time that the non-paying Member agreed to purchase whether or not such non-paying Member cures such failure. Such sale of Ice Time shall be at such time slots and sheet location as the Other Member shall determine. Further, such event shall constitute a Triggering Event, and Section 7.8 hereof shall apply.

11.2 Member Ice Sale. If one (1) Member (hereinafter, the "Selling Member") determines that it does not want to use its entire Ice Time, it shall first offer such unused ice times to the other Member ("Buying Member") for purchase at Selling Member's prevailing ice rate. If the Buying Member determines that it does not desire to purchase the additional ice time the Selling Member may sell such ice time to a third party; provided, however, that under all circumstances the Selling Member shall remain primarily obligated for the cost of such ice time which it desires to sell whether or not such ice is sold.

11.3 Ice Price. On or before May 15th of each calendar year, the Board shall set: (a) the ice price for the upcoming fall season commencing on or around September 1, (b) the ice schedule and (c) the ice budget for the main ice sheet for the following season.

ARTICLE XII
ANTI-POACHING

12.1 Anti-Poaching Policy. Each Member is required to present the Board the written consent or board resolution of each Member's board adopting an anti-poaching policy providing that no child that skates for the WHA (or WHC as the case may be) at the house league or travel level, may thereafter skate for the WHC or WHA, as the case may be, without the consent of both the WHA and WHC boards.

ARTICLE XIII
ICE ARENA OPERATIONS

13.1 Day to Day Operations and Fundraising. All fund raising services generated during the normal operation of the Ice Arena, including but not limited to, revenue from the sale of advertising, dasherboards, and ice sales to third parties, shall be for the Company's operating account. Each Member will appoint one individual to a fundraising committee (the "Fundraising Committee"). The Fundraising Committee in conjunction with the Management Company Managers will be responsible for selling all advertising and fund raising for the Company's operating account. The Fundraising Committee shall develop a policy to allocate commercial entities surrounding the rink among the Members so that the Members do not solicit the same entity. This Section does not prohibit either Member from hosting a fundraising event for their specific hockey club or association at the Ice Arena or elsewhere with all proceeds from the event going to such Member's club or association.

ARTICLE XIV
INVOLUNTARY TRANSFER

14.1 Involuntary Transfer. For purposes of this Agreement, an "Involuntary Transfer" shall mean the transfer of all or any portion of the Membership Interest owned by a Member as a result of the operation of law to any Person other than the Company for any reason including, but not limited to, a Member's trustee in Bankruptcy or a purchaser at any creditors' or court sale.

14.2 First Option to Remaining Member. In the event of an Involuntary Transfer of the Membership Interest owned by a Member, the Remaining Member shall have the right to purchase the Membership Interest so transferred (the "Transferred Interest") within sixty (60) days of the date upon which it first obtains actual notice of the transfer for $10,000. If the Remaining Member fails to exercise its right to purchase the Transferred Interest within such sixty (60) day period, such Transferred Interest will immediately become vested in the Company upon no further action by the Company.

ARTICLE XV
DISSOLUTION AND TERMINATION

15.1 Dissolution.

(a) The Company shall be dissolved upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(1) By the unanimous written agreement of all Members;

(2) Upon the bankruptcy or dissociation of a Member or occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued Membership of a Member in the Company (a "Withdrawal Event"), unless the business of the Company is continued by the consent of all the Remaining Members within ninety (90) days after the Withdrawal Event; or,

(3) The entry of a decree of judicial dissolution by a court of competent jurisdiction, pursuant to the Act.

(b) In the event the withdrawal of a Member for any reason results in there being only one Remaining Member, such Remaining Member, subject to the terms of this Agreement, shall have the sole authority and absolute discretion to admit any new Member or Members, or continue the business without dissolution, as the sole Member. In the event of the simultaneous withdrawal of all Members, the Company shall be immediately dissolved for want of a Member.

(c) A Member shall not take any voluntary action which directly causes a dissolution or dissociation from the Company. Unless otherwise approved by the Board, a Member who resigns (a "Resigning Member") or whose Membership Interest is otherwise terminated by virtue of a Withdrawal Event, regardless of whether such Withdrawal Event was the result of a voluntary act by such Member, shall not be entitled to receive any distributions in excess of those distributions to which such Member would have been entitled had such Member remained a Member. Damages for breach of this Section shall be monetary damages only (and not specific performance), and such damages may be offset against distributions by the Company to which the Resigning Member would otherwise be entitled.

15.2 Winding Up, Liquidation and Distribution of Assets.

(a) Upon dissolution, an accounting shall be made by the Company's independent accountants of the accounts of the Company and of the Company's assets, liabilities and operations, from the date of the last previous accounting until the date of dissolution. The Board shall immediately proceed to wind up the affairs of the Company.

(b) If the Company is dissolved and its affairs are to be wound up, the Board shall:

(1) Sell or otherwise liquidate all of the Company's assets as promptly as practicable (except to the extent the Board may determine to distribute any assets to the Members in kind); provided, however, that any such sale or liquidation shall be subject to the restrictions imposed in this Agreement.

(2) Discharge all liabilities of the Company, including liabilities to Members who are creditors, to the extent otherwise permitted by law, other than liabilities to Members for distributions, and establish such Reserves as may be reasonably necessary to provide for contingent liabilities of the Company.

(3) Distribute the remaining assets equally among the Members, unless otherwise determined by the Board, or to any other 501(c)(3) Entity determined by the Board. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Company is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(c) Upon completion of the winding up, liquidation and distribution of the assets, the Company shall be deemed terminated.

(d) The Board shall comply with all requirements of applicable law pertaining to the winding up of the affairs of the Company and the final distribution of its assets.

15.3 Articles of Dissolution. When all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or adequate provisions have been made therefor and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed, articles of dissolution as required by the Act, shall be executed in duplicate and filed with the Illinois Secretary of State.

15.4 Effect of Filing of Articles of Dissolution. Upon the filing of articles of dissolution with the Illinois Secretary of State, the existence of the Company shall cease, except for the purpose of suits, other proceedings and appropriate actions as provided in the Act. The Board shall have authority to distribute any Company Property discovered after dissolution, convey real estate and take such other action as may be necessary on behalf of and in the name of the Company, in each case, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
